Interested? Confused? Have questions? All welcome!

Thursday 12 March 2015

Annexe Theatre
2-4 Invermay Road Launceston
4.30pm – 9.30pm
1300 364 277
Launceston@reltas.com.au

Come early and meet the Human Library 'books', turn up for the Forum at 6pm or stay on and watch the film

Come along to a FREE film and forum in LAUNCESTON, find out what LGBTIQ stands for, listen to some personal stories, join in the discussion, participate in questions and answer time, check out the information stalls and mingle with other interested community members.

The documentary features Mani Mitchell, a change agent and educator and someone who identified as an intersex person – Mani regularly lectures at Universities, speaks and holds conversation in public.

This film documents her travels across a number of countries meeting and speaking on gender and sexuality with other individuals on similar experiences of unconventional lives.

Doors open @ 4.30pm – Annexe Theatre, Invermay Road

4.30pm – Human Library 'books'

6.00pm – Anti-discrimination presentation with Roz Smart

6.30pm – Personal stories and panel discussion (LGBTIQ people share their stories) facilitated by Rick Marton

8.00pm – Feature film Intersexion (90 minutes)

9.30pm – Event concludes attend and leave as your time permits – drinks and nibbles available

The Ally Network

I believe in an inclusive university culture for people of diverse sexuality and gender identities.

This forum is a collaborative community event supported by The Ally Network, University of Tasmania, Launceston City Council, West Tamar Council and Relationships Australia Tasmania, as well as many other organisations, individuals and support services.
